BIG FAKE DEAL

Wm. Beck of DeKalb Alleged to Have Forged Deed Signatures

JOHN GRIMM THE VICTIM

Borrows $3000 of Waukegan Man on Strength of Forged Deed Giving as Security Mortgage on Farm

A couple of weeks ago it was reported that John Grimm, a retired farmer had sold his farm situated one and one half miles south of town to a man who stated that he was from DeKalk and gave his name as Wm, Beck, and who agreed to pay the sum of $100 per acre for the land, However this agreement was only a verbal one no money was passed and no papers drawn. But later developments show that the prospective purchaser was a very clever trickster and investigation shows that to all intents and purposes, it is alleged, that Grimm had been victimized by one of the cleverest and most carefully planned swindles ever executed in Lake County. In foct it is claimed that in connection with the deal Beck swindled a Waukegan man said to be Henry Wedge of Portez street out of $3,000.

After agreeing to purchase the farm Beck demanded to be shown an abstract. Accordingly the owner went to Waukegan it is stated by one of the attorneys in the case, and ordered an abstract which was soon after delivered to the intended purchaser.

Beck then took the abstract to an attorney to have it examined and report on the title. This done it is said the intended purchaser called on Judge & Parker, a real estate and loan firm to procure a loan. "I have enough money to make the purchase," he is alleged to have said, "but I need more to make improvements and buy stock."

Then it is stated, after the abstract was completed and delivered, a deed was prepared on the following day. The pretended purchaser it is said returned next day with this deed properly signed and made out by Grimm, and the matter of the loan was closed at once. It is reported that the firm secured the loan of $3,000 from Henry Wedge.

Now it has developed that the signatures of the owners of the farm as attached to the deed, the signature of J. C. James, Jr., notary public and even the impression of his seal are all forgeries, and the incident has caused quite a little sensation in the vicinity.

When Mr. Grimm received an inkling of the matter he at once made a trip to Waukegan to ascertain how matters stood, and to his surprise and consternation he was shown a list of warranty deeds among which was an item showing that he had transferred his farm to the alleged Beck for $10,000 cash.

He called James over the phone to know if he had placed his seal on a warranty deed, but James could remember no such action. However it developes that the impression on the deed and the James seal differ only in the rim which is not at all alike and so the impression too has been pronounced a forgery as it appears on the deed.

Beck gave various excuses for wishing a loan. One was that he would not take possession till March and that he was going to Europe for a rest. Another was that he was fitting his son out for life and wished to install him on the place.

The third was that he would buy equipment.

The warranty deed showing that Beck paid Grimm $10,000 for his farm is properly on record and was placed there October 12, this is possibly the last date that Beck has been seen.

The signature of James, and the impression of the seal were pronounced as forgeries as were the signatures of Grimm and his wife to the deed. This it is said makes the whole thing a forgery, although it would take an expert to tell them from the genuine signatures. The deed is now in the hands of Attorney Wm. C. Upton. Beck was a man between 40 and 45 years of age about five feet ten inches tall, of a stocky build with a sandy complexion and mustache. He had all the appearances of being a farmer.

Beck's photograph adorns the rogues gallery in Chicago and several awards are hanging over his head. The fellow's right name is said to be John Butler and he has as many aliases as there are days in the month. So extensive has been his operations that the police declare that he has cleaned up $50,000 in the past eight years.

DEATH'S GRIM HARVEST

Henry W. Ingalls Passed Away After a Long and Painful Illness.

On Saturday afternoon of last week at 3:15 o'clock occurred the death of Henry W. Ingalls, a well known and highly respected citizen of this town.

His death came as a culmination of a long and painful illness which lasted over a period of many weeks, he having been taken ill about the first day of August, an abscess in his side being the original cause of his ailment. At times he seemed to be on the gain but that condition would last only a few days at a time when he gradually begin to fail each time growing weaker than before, but through all the twelve weeks of his illness he was ever patient and cheerful and from the first entertained strong hopes of regaining his health.

His death however was not unexpected for at no time had the physicians in charge given the family hope for his recovery.

He was born and grew to manhood in this town, in fact in the same house wherein his last days on earth were spent.

He was the youngest of a family of four children and was the first to pass into the great beyond. He was known as a good citizen, a kind neighbor and a true friend.

He held a membership in the Odd Fellows lodge at this place and was ever a faithful attendant and an energetic worker in the same, and his demise hasleft a vacancy among them which will not soon be filled.

Henry W. Ingalls was born in Antioch on the eleventh day of August in the year of 1857 and passed away at the same place on Saturday November 2, 1907, at the age of 50 years 2 months and 21 days. His entire life has been spent in Antioch and his familiar presence will be greatly missed from our numbers.

He never married but after the death of his parents many years ago he continued to live on at the old home with his sister Sarah.

He leaves to mourn the loss of an only brother, his three sisters, Miss Sarah Ingalls and Mrs L. M. Haynes of this place and Mrs. Warren Williams of Donnaphin, Mo., besides other relatives at Waukegan and a large number of friends.

The funeral services were held at the M. E. church on Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. Wm. C. Cleworth, of Wilmette. also a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge preaching the funeral sermon, with Rev. F. R. McNamer assisting. The members of the order to which he belonged attended in a body and took charge of the services at the grave. The floral offerings were many and beautiful and showed in a small measure the esteem in which the deceased was held by all who knew him.

The remains were laid at rest in the Antioch Hillside cemetery.

DIES AS RESULT OF INJURIES

Mrs. Hannah Amelia Cotting, wife of Charles Cotting, of Red Cloud, Neb, and sister of S. Upson of the town of Bristol, died at the Upson cottage at Bristol at an early hour Sunday morning as a result of injuries sustained in a fire which destroyed the Upson home about two weeks ago. Mrs. Cotting was saved from death in the burning building by the most heroic action on the part of Mr. Upson and his son. The night before the fire Mrs. Cotting had come from Nebraska for a visit with her brother and other relatives in the town of Bristol. She was sleeping in one of the upper rooms of the house and in attempting to reach the stairway was overcome by the flames and smoke. She was carried from the building in an unconscious condition and remained so for many hours. However after she regained consciousness it was thought she would recover. She had inhaled a large amount of the smoke and flames and later she contracted pneumonia.

Mrs. Cotting was fifty-one years of age and most of her life had been spent in the vicinity of Bristol. She is survived by her husband and three children. The remains were taken to Red Cloud, Neb., on Tuesday.

Porpoises In New York Harbor.

New York harbor was treated to a strange visitation one night recently. A school of porpoises, numbering as many as 100, and headed by a venerable patriarch in gray whiskers, swam in, took a leisurely survey of their surroundings and then returned to the open, something for which the oldest inhabitant could recall no precedent, says the Boston Transcript. The visitors came in through the new Ambrose deep water channel. Perhaps they assumed that it had been prepared expressly for their accommodation. At any rate, they seemed to approve of it. This phenomenon occurred on the night which a soothsayer had appointed for the submergence of Manhattan by a tidal wave. But the skeptical public did not take alarm. On the contrary, the old watermen said it betokened fine sea weather.

FOUND DEAD IN BED

Eating of Toadstools Alleged to be Mushrooms Said to be Cause

GRANDSON FINDS CORPSE

Aged Wife Beside Dead Man Also Deathly Ill and Physician Battles Hard to Save Her Life

One dead and one dying from the alleged eating of mushrooms gathered about North Chicago woods and prairies.

This is the essence of a terrible tragedy in the Martinak home in North Chicago.

It reads a forceful warning to amateur hunters of mushrooms, a warning that they should heed as they value their lives.

Be sure you are eating mushrooms and not toadstools.

In the last year alone several families have been made deathly sick by eating the supposed mushrooms.

Now comes the death of aged and respected John Martinak to give the last word to the careless and ignorant.

Do not attempt even to gather mushrooms unless you can tell the difference without any possibility of doubt between a mushroom and a toadstool.

If you can not tell, let the mushrooms alone.

Retiring last Sunday night in the best of health, after supposedly partaking of mushrooms with the rest of the family, John Martinak of North Chicago, was found dead in bed Monday morning by a grandson, his face turned a sickly black.

By his side lay his aged wife, also deathly ill, and Monday morning Dr. Connell battled in a supreme struggle against death to revive the woman, washing out her stomach and taking all measures to restore her.

Although there is no certainty about it, the tragedy is thought to have followed the eating of toadstools in the supposition that they were mushrooms.

However, the family of Martinak's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Prikopa, also partook plentifully of the supposed mushrooms and none suffered.

Martinak and his wife, both aged about 60, reside in rooms above the Prikopas, who support them, and when the Prikopas had mushrooms for their supper, thought to have been gathered by a member of the family, the Martinaks received their share. However, the two families cook separately, so the Prikopas can not say with certainty whether the old folks ate the mushrooms furnished or not.

Monday morning Prikopa, who has been working nights at the wire mills, returned to be greeted by his wife with the announcement that the "old folks," as they call the Martinaks, had not yet arisen.

Prikopa sent his son, the eldest one, up stairs. The boy rapped at the door and receiving no response, bursted it in and discovered the two old people in bed, Mrs. Martinak unconscious and Martinak dead and black in the face.

The body of the old man was removed to the Larson & Conrad morgue, where the inquest took place, and Dr. Connell was summoned to attend Mrs. Martinak, for whom a bare hope of recovery was held out.

Later—The coroner's jury rendered a verdict to the effect that John Martinak came to his death by being overcome by soft coal gas.

COINERS GET SIX MONTHS

The gang of counterfeiters caught passing bogus coins one day last summer at Fox Lake have been sentenced each to six months in the Cook county jail.

One, a Frenchman, is an expert molder and made molds of plaster paris. The counterfeit coins were made of soldering metal and the two were caught when one of the bad coins which was too thick got caught in a slot machine.

The light penalties were imposed because of the fact that the men did not pass the spurious coin, but merely played the slot machines with it.

MARSHAL WILMOT CHOSEN

Waukegan Man Appointed to Convoy Russian Jew Back to Russia

To Remove One of Roosevelt's Undesirables Clear to Warsaw in Russian Poland

Because no steamships leave American ports for Russian ports, the nearest of which at any rate is possibly Odessa, United States Deputy Marshal Wilmot of Waukegan has been chosen to convey back to Russia a Chicago Russian Jew.

Marshal Wilmot will start on his long and record breaking trip this week, and in addition to the Russian Jew will have two Germans, who will, however, be put on German vessels at New York and deported by their own people.

When seen in regard to the matter Marshal Wilmot had not yet received details of his errand and simply stated that he knew he was to aid in the deportation of the Chicagoans and that he would start this week. He was unable to give the name of the man.

The man who is to be deported is, it appears, one of Roosevelt's undesirables and will be deported under the United States pauper act, which prohibits the entrance into this country of pauper undesirables.

On leaving Chicago Marshal Wilmot and his charges will at once proceed to Baltimore, where they will take ship to Bremen, Germany, and thence will travel by rail to the Russian frontier, which they will cross and travel by rail until their ultimate destination, Warsaw, Polish Russia, is reached

There the marshal will deliver his charge to the Russian authorities and then return to America. The trip will take over a month and by its size and importance is shown the esteem in which Mr. Wilmot is held at headquarters in Chicago.

Russia has but few seaports open to trade on the north, if she has any at all, her principal seaport being Odessa on the Black Sea. To reach Odessa by ship would necessitate a trip of months for the steamship would have to cross the Atlantic to some French seaport, then skirt the coast of France and Spain to the Mediterranean, go up through that, go through the Bosphorous and finally reach Odessa.

The ordinary way in which travelers reach Russia is that which the marshal will take, through Germany.

CUPID IN EVIDENCE AGAIN

John Gaggin and Miss Stella Jorden United in Marriage at Wilmot

On Monday forenoon at the Catholic church at Wilmot occurred the wedding of Miss Stella Jorden of Camp Lake to Mr. John Gaggin of this place. Father Heller solemnizing the marriage vows.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's mother at Camp Lake and was attended by only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride is a bright accomplished young lady well known throughout Kenosha county and has a large circle of friends who wish her much joy and happiness through life.

The groom is a well known and prosperous young farmer who has always lived in this vicinity. He is a young man of exemplary habits and worthy of the bride he has chosen.

The happy couple left on the afternoon train, mid showers of rice, good wishes etc., for a wedding trip through Texas and other southern states.

The usual amount of jokes were played upon the bridal couple and when they started on the journey they were perfectly unconscious of the fact that a large placard bearing the inscription "We are just married," decorated the back of the seat.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Gaggin will take up their residence on a farm just north of town which he has rented of Miss Mary Gaggin.

The News joins with their many friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Landseer a Nature Faker.

An English reviewer gravely assures us that Landseer's famous painting, "Eagles Attacking Swans," is based on an entirely false assumption. Eagles do not battle with swans or other quarry. They strike or pounce upon their prey and never descend to vulgar brawling. This is a handsome compliment to the eagle, but a sad blow for art.

THE WOMAN IN THE CASE

Who is the Pretty Blond Figuring in the Case of Absconding Bank Clerk?

She was a striking Titian blond of a blooming type of beauty, plump and fair.

She dressed in a bright blue.

She wore pearl pendants in her ears.

She created a sensation in Waukegan several months ago and was reported to have been an adventuress. Now she reappears, it is alleged as the woman who lured Harvey T. Wells of Kenosha, absconding bank clerk, to disgrace, discovery and flight.

The trail of Kenosha Detectives after Harvey T. Wells, alleged absconding First National Bank clerk of that city, may eventually lead them to Waukegan, as it is said by some of Wells' former acquaintances that he is infatuated with a former Waukegan woman now in Chicago.

The woman is described by Wells' acquaintances as a blond of the most pronounced type, generally costumed in a striking blue and always wearing large pearl pendants. She was in Waukegan several months ago, stopping at a hotel, and it is supposed went afterward to Kenosha where she met Wells and trapped him to his destruction.

The Kenosha News says that the woman is now in Chicago and that detectives are trying to locate Wells through her if she is found. It may be that the Kenosha detectives will have to go to Waukegan to get data concerning the woman, whose name can not be learned.

It is said that Wells has relatives in Waukegan.

Wells is 21 years old and had for six years been employed at the First National Bank in Kenosha as a clerk, drawing more than ordinarily large pay and attending strictly to business.

About a week ago he disappeared and since that time his alleged defalcation has been uncovered.

It is claimed by the bank authorities that he falsified his books to the extent of $3.200, but little of which he got away with as it is claimed that he spent it on the Chicago and Waukegan blond as fast as he got it.

He is the son of P. Wells of South Park avenue, Kenosha.

There is as yet no trace of Wells or of the bright haired woman who, it is said, lured him to his ruin.

BIG TARGET TOURNAMENT

One of the biggest target tournaments ever attempted in this part of the country will be pulled off at the Oak Park hotel grounds, Pistakee Bay on Saturday and Sunday, November 9 and 10.

The two days shoot with pleasant weather prevailing it is anticipated, bring a large number of crack shots out to the popular summer resort. With this end in view landlord Mertes is making arrangements to entertain one of the largest gatherings of this kind that has ever come together in this part of the country.

The fact that the better class of shooters will be there should not in the least interfere with the local amateurs taking part in the two days program, as the shoot will be arranged to give all classes of shooters an equal chance for the prizes.

The program is to consist of fourteen events each day, moneys to be divided 40, 30, and 10 per cent. Blue rocks will be thrown from two traps at a distance of 40 and 50 yards.

The average money will be $20 to be divided as follows: For higher average of both days $8.00, second highest average $7.00 and $5.00 for the third. Professionals shoot for price of targets only.

GOOD THING TO LEAVE ALONE.

Physicians Advice to Those Who Are Fond of Mushrooms.

It may be possible that when all the boys are dead they will quit eating toadstools and dying in spasms therefrom. The edible and poisonous varieties of these fungi are too close together in general and species for the average youngster to differentiate them. It continues, after many years, to be the same old story: Eat it; if it kills you it is a toadstool; if it agrees with you it is a mushroom. Some years ago the department of agriculture at Washington issued an elaborate and beautiful set of illustrations of mushrooms and "near" mushrooms, labeling one set "edible" and the other "poisonous." The story leaked out that the printers got the labels mixed, and that the transposition was not discovered until the work had been sent broadcast. The officials did some tall hustling in an effort to call in the issue. A well-known physician said to me the other day: "Owing to the very great difficulty in ordinary life of detecting the true from the false, my mushroom advice has usually been 'let both kinds alone.'"—New York Press.

FIRE WORKS HAVOC

McMahon Building at Ingleside Burned to the Ground Tuesday Morning

CAUSE OF FIRE A MYSTERY

That Other Nearby Buildings Were Not Consumed is Due to Heroic Work of Volunteer Fire Department

Tuesday morning at 1:30 o'clock the little village of Ingleside was visited by its first fire, which proved to be quite disasterous.

The fire broke out in the McMahon building and seemed to originate on the first floor in a small apartment used as a store room. The blaze was discovered by Jas. Gerred and a Mr. Tonyon who were awakened from their slumbers at about the same time, by a bright and flashing light. They immediately spread the alarm and hastened to awaken the occupants of the doomed building which was a somewhat difficult matter as even then they were dazed from the dense smoke which filled the sleeping apartments. The cry of fire was soon responded to and people flockd from every direction. The telephone was put into active service the operator summoning everyone within her reach to aid in fighting the flames.

On account of the close proximity of the other buildings it was no easy matter to check the progress of the fire, and it was only through the heroic efforts of the vulunteer bucket brigade which was hastily formed that the flames were held in check and prevented from wiping out the main part of the village.

The fire had gained considerable headway when discovered and it was from the first apparent that that the flames were beyond controle, so attention was turned to fighting for the safety of the other nearby building and for a time it was doubtful if the building owned by Jas. Gerred and occupied by them as a store and a dwelling could be saved- in fact it is badly scorched and seemed many times to be on the point of bursting into flames. While some were fighting the fire others were busy removing the furniture, and the stock from the store, and in removing the furniture etc., from the residence of A. Tweed and preparing to remove the postoffice fixtures on short notice.

The building belonged to John McMahon and was entirely consumed, the loss being partially covered by an insurance.

The loss is about $6,000 and an insurance to the amount of $3,500 was carried.

The Hayes family who occupied the upper rooms of the building escaped only in their night robes. Nothing was saved from the burning building. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have resulted from a defective lighting system.

Words of Daniel Webster.

If we work upon marble, it will perish; if we work upon brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon our immortal minds, if we imbue them with principles—with the just fear of God and our fellow-man—we engrave on these tablets something which will brighten to all eternity.—Daniel Webster.

Good to Remember.

The Mystery OF Carney-Croft

By JOSEPH BROWN COOKE

(Copyright, 1907, by Story-Press Corporation.)

An iron ladder, very much rusted and weather worn, but apparently perfectly strong and secure, was attached to one side of this shaft, and, after waiting for a few minutes until my eyes had become accustomed to the blackness of the hole, I could see that it was about 12 feet deep and opened into the arched roof of a tunnel of some kind, the floor of which, as well as the sides and top, was constructed of massive masonry.

At times the most level-headed and evenly balanced man is tempted to do some foolhardy thing, and, while I make no claim to any unusual degree of personal bravery, and have not a dare-devil trait in my disposition, I was suddenly seized with an irresistible desire to descend into this forbidding looking pit and investigate it for myself, then and there.

My revolver was fully loaded and I also carried a small pocket-lamp which had been given me some time before and which I had found useful on several occasions; less strenuous, however, than the one at hand.

With these thoughts in my mind and, it must be confessed, with many misgivings which I strove to keep down and ignore, I propped open the lid of the manhole and descended boldly into the underground passage, holding my revolver firmly in my hand and ready to light my little lamp as soon as I reached the bottom of the ladder.

Once in the tunnel I stepped to one side in the direction of the river, where I could not be seen by anyone looking in from above, and tried to accommodate my eyes to the darkness of the place and avoid, if possible, the use of my lamp.

After a time I found that I could see fairly well and that I was in a long, narrow tunnel of brick and stone, about six feet wide and seven in height, which sloped gradually down to the river, where it ended in the flight of stone steps that I had seen and which were entirely under the surface of the water. There was a damp, noisome odor to the place and I soon recognized in it the same graveyard smell that I now knew so well and dreaded so much.

I had, however, expected something of this sort, and nerving myself to almost anything that might be disclosed in my search, I proceeded cautiously and stealthily along toward the steps, thinking I would explore that part of the tunnel first, before going in the other direction.

I saw nothing of interest until I got near the water, where I found a heavy, warm coat neatly folded and, on it, a whisky flask with the cork loosened, evidently awaiting their owner and indicating clearly that he purposed returning by the route he had taken when he left.

Leaving these as they lay, I retraced my steps and passed once more under the open shaft and on up the gentle slope of the passage-way, holding my pistol well in front of me and wondering at what moment some ghastly sight would meet my gaze and account for the constantly increasing fetidness of the place. I had not lighted my lamp, for the faint glimmer that filtered in through the river water and the illumination from the shaft enabled me to see with reasonable distinctness.

As I proceeded up the tunnel, however, objects began to grow dimmer and dimmer and I was on the point of striking a light when I heard a sudden crash and saw, to my horror, that the lid of the manhole had fallen shut with a bang, leaving me in total darkness.

Before I could ignite my lamp or even collect my thoughts, there was a rush of foul air from the upper end of the tunnel and then some heavy, lumbering creature brushed past me, breathing into my face a hot breath of unspeakable suggestiveness and wheezing and mumbling like a fretful lion just after a generous meal.

I shrank close to the wall of my prison, for such it now was, not knowing what to do or which way to turn, when, to my great relief, the beast, or whatever it was, shuffled awkwardly past me again, still making horrid guttural sounds and breathing deeply as before.

A rat, or some similar little animal, scuttled over my feet at the same moment, stopping long enough to bite my ankle sharply, but I made no sound and held my breath until the more formidable creature was well beyond me and left me a free course to the river.

As soon as I felt that the coast was clear and that I could not be overtaken, I sped down the incline toward the steps and plunged headlong into the water, which glimmered faintly green before me. Striking out under the surface, I swam as far away from the entrance as I could, and, coming to the top at last, I made for the shore and dashed on to my room for whisky and dry clothing.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Another Escape.

It was still early in the evening and such was my anxiety to solve this problem without unnecessary delay that, in spite of my experiences of the day, I resolved to return again to the manhole and see how it happened to have fallen shut and if anything new could be learned from a superficial inspection of the place after dark.

I stopped long enough in the hallway to dispatch a servant to the railway station with my letter to MacArdel so that it would catch the late mail and then, leaving word that I was going out for a short stroll, I put on a heavy coat and left the house.

There was an icy chill in the air that betokened snow in the near future, and I had heard one of the natives say the day before that we would have a storm and a "gol dummed big one, too," before the end of the week.

As I started down the path to the river I could not doubt the accuracy of the fellow's prophecy, and I drew my coat collar well about my neck and shivered fitfully as the rigorous blasts of the coming winter reached through my garments and chilled my very bones.

A sudden drop in temperature, followed by heavy snow, in the early autumn was not uncommon in this climate, as I knew full well, and it was usually a serious matter to the farmers, whose fall crops were ruined and many of whose cattle perished; but this year was destined to see such a storm as had not been equaled in many a decade.

The wind howled and whistled through the trees and over the hilltops and then, when a lull would come, it was emphasized by the dull, heavy moaning of the pines and hemlocks far away in the distance beyond the river. At times I even thought I could feel occasional flakes of snow striking me in the face as I strode on over the turf on my way to the tunnel entrance, but I could not be sure, and it might have been only the dust and other small bits of matter that were picked up in the gale and whirled viciously through the air.

Descended Into the Underground Passage.

When I reached the manhole I was not at all surprised to find that some one had been there before me and again covered it with leaves and bits of grass but, as I tried to raise it once more, never doubting that I could make my escape across the lawn if I were detected in this, my astonishment was profound at discovering that it was securely fastened down from below.

While I was kneeling down on the ground and tugging at the lid to make sure that it was locked, I thought I heard a step behind me and turned my head quickly to see if anyone was approaching. It was, however, apparently nothing more than the snapping of a branch due to the fury of the wind, and I again turned to the manhole, hoping vaguely that, even if I could not open it, I might perhaps hear some conversation through the grating that would serve as a sort of a clew to the grewsome doings beneath.

As I laid my hand on the iron work again it touched a cold, heavy object which had certainly not been there a moment before, and, picking it up and holding it between me and the sky, I saw, to my amazement, that it was my own revolver, to the handle of which was tied a bit of folded paper.

For an instant my heart seemed to stop and I remained rigid on my knees with my arms upraised as I had held out my pistol for inspection, fearing to move through very terror of my own shadow. My breath caught in my throat and then came in short, heavy gasps, while the wind alternately moaned and roared about me and occasional thick damp snowflakes lightly touched my ashen face.

There certainly had been no sound or motion in front of me where I found the pistol, and I had convinced myself that the crackling I had heard at my back, and which was some distance away at best, had been due to nothing more than the wind.

At length, and with trembling fingers, I removed the paper from the stock of the weapon and stuffed it into my pocket, so that I could examine it later, and was about to rise nervously to my feet, when I again heard a slight disturbance in the shrubbery to one side of me and saw a man approaching stealthily and apparently on all fours.

With no thought of the consequences and in an actual frenzy of terror, I raised the pistol and fired at him point-blank, but the cartridge failed to explode or else the chambers were empty, and, with a frantic shriek, I sprang to my feet and threw myself headlong upon him.

He seemed entirely unprepared for this attack, but he made no sound and strove manfully to defend himself as I grappled at his throat and we rolled over and over down the velvety lawn to the river.

I was considerably hampered by my overcoat and having no desire to go into the water with him, I relaxed my efforts somewhat, when, with almost superhuman strength and emitting a cry that indicated a degree of terror equal to my own, he tore himself from my grasp and sped away in the direction of the turnpike.

Feeling, now, that I was his master, I dashed madly after him, pulling off my coat as I ran, and I was gaining slowly upon him in spite of the redoubled efforts that he made, when, on the sharp incline that led down to the road, he stumbled and fell and I was upon him again in a moment.

My victory was short lived, however, for as he struggled fiercely to free himself from my grasp and I, with equal fury, strove to choke or beat him into a state of submission, we again rolled over and over in the grass until, as luck would have it, my leg caught in a strand of the barbed wire fence that enclosed the property at this out-of-the-way point, and once more he succeeded in freeing himself and tore down the road in the direction of the village.

My clothing was torn and mud-stained, my hands and face were bruised and bleeding, I ached in every limb and was well nigh exhausted with the furious and protracted encounter, and I was hatless and coatless into the bargain, but I at least had one cause for congratulation.

In my second wrestle with my hitherto unknown assailant I had been able to get a sufficiently good view of his face to identify him positively and, in spite of the remarkable protestations of ignorance concerning the Carney-Croft mystery which I had heard him make to the widow only the night before, and which I was now forced to believe were but part of a little comedy gotten up for my special delectation, my lusty antagonist was no other than the long-suffering Jenks.

CHAPTER XXIV.

The Doctor Explains It.

When I returned to the house my first thought was to read the note which I had found tied to the pistol and, as I had expected, it was in the Bruce woman's hand and was evidently intended for Jenks, whom I had detected as he was coming to get it. It was brief and to the point and read:

"Try and return this pistol to Mr. Ware's room. Be cautious. Get her to manage it. Do as she says."

Complain of Beavers.

There is a movement in Maine to permit an open season for killing beavers, because of the damage to standing timber caused by the little animals. Lumbermen lay all sorts of depredations at the door of the dam builders.

TO CLEAN PILLOW COVERS.

By This Method Tinted Ones Will Not Be Harmed.

Soiled sofa pillow covers are among the most disgusting of house furnishings.

They certainly cannot be either decorative or useful.

It is a simple matter to do up washable sofa pillow tops, but one hesitates before attempting to clean the tinted ones.

However, they may be done up several times if the following method is used: Make a suds of tepid, not hot, water, and wash the cover rapidly by squeezing in the hands.

Rinse in tepid water and shake in the air until partly dry.

Place face down on a pad, cover with a thin, smooth piece of cotton cloth, and iron rapidly with a hot iron until perfectly dry.

If there are no grease spots or stains it may be dry-cleaned by ripping it apart, placing it right side up on a board, fastening it with thumb screws, and rubbing the surface with kneaded rubber until the cover is perfectly clean.

When cleaning the embroidery be very careful to move the rubber in the same direction as the stitches. A five-cent rubber will be large enough.

ONE WAY TO MEND CURTAINS.

Treatment That Will Make Them Appear Like New.

These curtains were of plain net with border on one side and bottom, and this one pair had broken in holes through the border for about a foot above the window sill, says a writer in the Chicago Tribune. I cut the border off clear across the bottom, carefully following the curves in the design, then, noticing the figure at the edge of the curtain, raised the border till it overlapped a corresponding figure in the side border, which, in this case, occurred at such a distance as to remove all the worn part. Then, with curtain still hanging at the window to insure proper adjustment, fasten border across with pins, remove from curtain pole, lay on flat surface, and baste carefully.

Stitch twice on machine, having tension loose enough not to draw the net, and using care in turning corners, raising the presser foot often. Remove and cut away the old part underneath, and press thoroughly. I then let down the extra length which had been turned over at the top and rehung them and the mending does not show at all. My curtains are like new and still hang within three inches of the floor.

Mexican Salad.

Cut cold boiled ham, cooked chicken and cold boiled potatoes into fine shreds or Juliennes. Take a cup of each and mix with a tablespoonful and a half of olive oil, a scant tablespoonful of vinegar, a teaspoonful of grated onion, also paprika and salt as needed. When thoroughly mixed set aside to become cold and seasoned. In the meantime make ready a cup of shredded celery and one-third of a cup of sweet red pepper. When ready to serve mix the celery, pepper and seasoned ingredients with enough mayonnaise dressing to hold them together. Turn them onto a bed of lettuce leaves. Garnish with quarters of hard-boiled eggs and chopped whites and sifted yolk of egg.—Miss Hill in Boston Cooking School, May 1.

Clear Lemon Pie.

Dissolve three tablespoonfuls of corn starch and stir in one and a half pints of boiling water until it thickens. Just before setting this aside to cool add a dessertspoonful of butter. Grate the rinds and squeeze the juice of two lemons, stir with this one and one-half cupfuls of sugar. Before the corn starch is entirely cold, add lemon and sugar. Line two pie plates with pastry, stick with a fork to prevent rising unevenly and bake. Fill with the lemon mixture and return to the oven until thoroughly heated; spread with a meringue made of the whites of three eggs and sweetened. Brown lightly. Serve cold.

Oysters in Jelly Are Delicious.

It is essential in modern cookery that the food please the eye as well as the palate, says the September Delineator.

A dainty suggestion to this point was furnished at one of the late spring banquets, when each guest was served with an individual mold of aspic, in the center of which there were several appetizing-looking oysters. The molds were of different shapes, and were served on beds of watercress, while the aspic had been generously flavored with lemon juice. The combination, therefore, was as tasty as it was attractive.

Apple Indian Pudding.

Two quarts of milk, put one in double boiler, one cup of corn meal, one-half cup flour. When the milk begins to boil, when all thickened, take off, put in a large baking dish, add one cup of molasses, one teaspoon of cinnamon, one-half nutmeg, one teaspoon salt, one egg, the other quart of milk. Pour in large sweet apples, chopped fine, cooked with one cup of water, at the same time you put on the milk. Now add all together and bake slowly about three hours and serve with whipped cream.

Pumpkin Filling.

Peel and cut the pumpkin into bits, put it over the fire, and stew as for pie. When soft strain through a colander, return to the fire, boil hard, and pour into heated cans, filling each to overflowing with the liquid. Stand upside down for two hours.

Our Springfield Letter

Special Correspondent Writes of Things of Interest at the State Capital.

Springfield.—A reassuring statement regarding conditions existing among the state banks in Illinois was made by State Auditor James S. McCullough who is the statutory supervisor of 400 state banks in Illinois. Discussing the troubles in banking circles in the east and the condition in Illinois, Auditor McCullough said: "The disturbance in New York furnishes no cause for apprehension in this section. Our state is blessed with a bountiful crop which, in the next five months, will be converted into money contributed from all parts of the world. The banks in the country are loaded with funds prepared not only to furnish the money required to move this crop, but ready to invest in first-class commercial paper offered in the market. The feature of the last bank report in response to call was the unusually strong reserve, despite the general understanding that money is tight. In this report the 24 state banks in Chicago made a magnificent showing. Notwithstanding there is no legal requirement in the state banking act, and although the federal act requires the national banks in the larger cities to carry a reserve of 25 per cent., the 44 state banks in Chicago showed an available reserve of approximately $100,000,000, representing about 30 per cent. of all character of deposit. In addition the report shows high grade bonds aggregating over $70,000,000—a resource acknowledged the most readily convertible because there are daily market quotations thereon. Sixteen of these banks, qualified under the trust act, have on deposit with this department about $5,000,000 in high class securities. The situation warrants an optimistic view, and confidence should continue undisturbed."

"Open Sunday" Bill Is Killed.

The "open Sunday" bill urged by the United Societies of Chicago was killed in the senate. A number of members of the societies were present when the bill died. Senator Ettleson introduced a bill providing for the electrification of all the railroads in the city of Chicago within three years. The senate passed bills giving boards of education in cities the same power to acquire school sites as is now given in country districts, and giving towns of 1,500 inhabitants authority to construct and maintain public libraries. That the defeat at Springfield will serve to give greater impetus to the movement of the United Societies for organizing similar bodies throughout the entire state was the statement made by Vice President M. J. Huss. "I am surprised to learn that the bill was defeated," said Mr. Huss. "However, it ought to spur on our membership in the effort to organize the state of Illinois so that a better understanding of our aims and objects may be obtained. It would seem to me that if the members of the legislature fully understood our purposes the result would have been different." "I did not expect the bill would pass," declared Treasurer Franz Amberg. "The country members of the legislature were afraid to place themselves on record regarding the bill." "The saloons in Chicago won't be closed on Sunday anyway, as Mayor Busse is opposed to such a program," asserted Financial Secretary Landa. "We will continue this fight with greater energy, as we have a large part of the people of Chicago behind us. Our future program will probably be determined at a meeting to be held in the near future."

Will Lecture On Peanut Diet.

Having proved by his own case that a man may subsist exclusively on peanuts without its having the effect upon his mental processes which might be expected from such a "nutty" diet, Prof. Allen, of Elgin, is going to Chicago to give the public of the city the benefit of his discoveries. He has found that the miscellaneous and unintelligent consumption of peanuts as a diversion is not attended with the best effects. It is necessary to eat them seriously and earnestly in order to have them fit the system out with new life and vigor. They must not only be approached with some degree of reverence, but they must also be cracked and eaten in a certain way. Wherefore the professor is going to Chicago, in order that the youth of the city may be enabled to enjoy the use of peanuts. He will give a lecture and demonstration, assisted by some of his disciples.

Gets $615,827 for Missions.

The general executive board of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church closed its session. The finance committee reports the following appropriations for the ensuing year: New England, $42,978; New York, $95,000; Philadelphia, $60,327; Baltimore, $18,210; Cincinnati, $78,712; Northwestern branch, $145,000; Des Moines, $65,000; Minneapolis, $24,000; Topeka, $42,000; Pacific branch, $31,000, and Columbia, $13,000. The total of $615,827 is an increase of $26,289 over last year.

Bill to Stop Football Prize Fighting.

A bill to restrain the authorities from permitting prize fighting in Kankakee public schools was filed in the circuit court there by Stephen R. Moore, dean of the county bar. Attorney Moore filed his bill after he had watched the high school football team play one or two matches. He failed to see any difference between the gridiron game, as the boys played it, and prize fighting, except that possibly it was rougher and more dangerous to life and limb. To Attorney Moore's vision the high school gridiron is simply an enlarged prize ring in which two sets of youths pommel one another till one side is so mauled and disabled that the other is declared winner. And since prize fighting is illegal Mr. Moore fails to see why the subterfuge under which it is carried on should be permitted. The bill for an injunction is directed against L. W. Smith, principal of the high school, and F. N. Tracy, superintendent of city schools. It is specifically designated "a bill for an injunction to restrain prize fighting in the public schools." Attorney Moore carefully ignores the polite term "football." What he objects to is the encouragement given by the school authorities to prize fighting. He points out in his bill that the purpose of the board of education is to provide a common school education for persons between the ages of 5 and 21 years, and that no authority has been conferred upon the board or on any teacher or principal to train the pupils as prize fighters. The bill declares that "L. W. Smith, employed by the board of education in the capacity of principal of the high school, has organized a team out of the school that travels from place to place in the state of Illinois and engages in contests of prize fighting with scholars of other schools." Principal Smith and Superintendent Tracy, the bill charges, attempted to hide the fact that the pupils are prize fighters by calling their contests "football." That, declares Attorney Moore, "is simply a subterfuge. In all its purposes and effects it is purely a contest of brute strength, and force, and fighting." In support of his plea to the court to restrain this prize fighting Attorney Moore calls attention to the fact that since October 1 there have been eight fatalities and many serious injuries have been received by participants in the game.

Cannon Scoffs at Panic.

"A number of people have created in their own imagination a ghost, and then started to run away from it. As soon as the public realizes this fact their fears will disappear and everything will go on the same prosperous plane as before." In these words "Uncle Joe" Cannon, speaker of the national house of representatives, summarized the prevailing financial situation in an informal talk made before the Springfield Admen's club. He said that the recent disturbance originated among the bulls and bears of Wall street. "Whether the bulls might be successful or the bears might win in their speculative manipulations is of no real importance to the solid business interests of the country," said Speaker Cannon. "The business of this country is done largely on credit," explained Mr. Cannon, elaborating his argument. "Ninety per cent. of the business of this country is transacted on credit and the remaining ten per cent. represents actual cash transactions. Credit conditions have been affected recently by a number of different conditions. One thing here, another there, and something else in another place, brought about a disturbance for which, in my opinion, there is no foundation in fact."

Pharmacists Stand Test.

At a recent examination conducted by the Illinois state board of pharmacy in this city, an unusually large percentage of the applicants for registered pharmacists and assistant pharmacists passed the tests. In the former class, 13 out of a class of 17 were successful and in the latter, eight out of ten passed. The names of the successful applicants for registered pharmacists are as follows: T. S. Alexander, Decatur; Ella Butler, Carbondale; D. L. Duty, Marion; Menzie E. Gilbert, Jacksonville; G. Gruenwald, Belleville; James Kelley, McLeansboro; C. D. McKinley, Mason City; Walter J. Pfaff, Centralia; Bertha Reisman, Chicago; John E. Rogers, Champaign; B. J. Rozanski, Chicago; S. L. Stevens, Dalton City; S. Wilhelmy, LaPlace.

Church Refuses to Take Gifts.

The trustees of the Sacred Heart church declined to accept a legacy left to the church by the will of Mrs. Anna Thimel. A paper to this effect was filed by the board and signed by Rev. Father Krekenberg, pastor of the church. No reason is assigned for the action taken. In her will Mrs. Thimel devised a sum to the church to purchase a statue of some saint. The statue of St. Jacobus was preferred. The trustees suggested that the money be turned over to Mrs. Thimel's children.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The opinion seems to be general throughout this country as well as abroad that the recent Wall Street storm will serve as an object lesson to clear the atmosphere, and that one of its results may be a reorganization of the New York Stock Exchange. It has, undoubtedly, demonstrated that our local banking institutions are solvent as a whole, and are managed with due conservatism. Now that abuses have been exposed and are in process of being remedied, we believe that confidence will soon be firmer than ever because the solidity of the banking fabric has been so thoroughly tested. The action of certain of our financiers were bound to result, sooner or later, in a catastrophe, and the people of the United States owe an incalculable debt of gratitude to President Roosevelt for the judgement and foresight which precipitated these exposures at this time, when the country at large is undisturbed by relatively debt and is exceptionally prosperous.

The biological laboratory of the Department of Agriculture is preparing to hurl a bombshell into the American home. This will be intelligence that the cat is one of the greatest carriers of disease; that it is responsible for the spread of tuberculosis, scarlet fever, small-pox and diphtheria, especially among children. Until comparatively recently, 1882, tuberculosis has been looked upon as absolutely fatal, but science has ably demonstrated that it is a germ disease and curable in any climate, and under conditions of poverty as well as of wealth, and associations to enlist the public in its prevention have come into existence throughout the country. To educate the masses as to the real nature and curability of this disease, and to awaken them to their own responsibility in the premises is the problem which the health departments of the nation, the state and municipality have to solve in their great work of eradicating tuberculosis.

Some Southern papers have charged that the provision of the immigration law construed in Attorney General Bonaparte's recent ruling in the Garcia case to the effect that the states could not encourage immigration by promises of employment, is in contravention of an understanding by which the Southern members of Congress supported the immigration bill rushed through at the last session of Congress. Southern Senators, it is alleged, were given to understand that nothing contained in the bill would interfere with the plans of their State for the promotion of foreign immigration. That such assurances were given is undoubtedly true, but it is also true that the provision on which the Attorney General's ruling is based has been a part of the immigration for a number of years, so that the allegation of breach of faith in the adoption of the existing measure is groundless. The provision referred to is that forbidding the importation of immigrants under contract to perform labor or under promise of employment. The Attorney General holds that this inhibition applies to the States as well as to an individual or a corporation.

There is nothing better for stomach troubles than Kodol, which contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Kodol is offered on a guaranteed plan for the relief of heart burn, flatulence, sour stomach, belching of gas, nausea and all stomach troubles. It digests what you eat. It will make you healthy. Sold by J. H. Swan.

HAD NO USE FOR BABIES.

Dog Intended to Be the Only Pet in the Household.

I owned a black and tan terrier from 1874 to 1881. I received him when quite a puppy and he was with me through part of my university and the whole of my seminary terms. In 1880 I married and in 1881 my first child was born. The first time she was brought down into the sitting room I, like a proud father, took the little one in my arm. The dog came in and expressed his jealousy by a series of growls and an attempt to get at the child by jumping. I gave him a hint with my foot and he walked out of the house. We saw nothing of him for over three months. One day while walking near the outer part of the town where we lived we saw old Croaker, as we called him. He took no notice of us, but walked straight to a place where there was a trim-looking garden and a neat-looking house. Upon inquiry we found that it was inhabited by two elderly spinster sisters. The dog had gone to them and could not be induced to leave. He was determined to avoid a similar danger in the future.—Chicago Tribune.

For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the age and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by J. H. Swan, druggist. 50c.

A Vain Boaster.

A farmer in central New York state has in his employ a man named George, whose understanding is not very acute. One day as his employer came out to the field where he was working, George hailed him: "Say, boss, who do you like best, Mr. Gorman or Mr. Carney," naming two ministers whose churches are in the neighborhood. "Well," said the farmer, "I couldn't say. I never heard Mr. Gorman preach." "I don't like that man Carney," said George; "he brags too much. I went to his church last Sunday and he didn't talk about anything but his father's mansions and brag about how much finer they were than any one else's."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Russia's Prisoners.

In the political prison at Riga, according to the Rigaer Rundschau, if a prisoner, male or female, shows a head at the barred window, in search of air or light, the sentries shoot at the face, by order of Gen Baron Meller-Zakomelski, who is called "the butcher of the Baltic Provinces."

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

Was Taking No Chances.

A woman of an original frame of mind asked the managers of the New York street railways to provide each conductor with a mop and a dust brush with which to keep the seats of their cars dry in wet weather and clear of dust at other times. The superintendent has declined to consider the proposition on the ground that the conductors might get into trouble with the servant girls' union.

You can't be well if you have a weak, unhealthy, tired out stomach. Neither can you feel good if some little irregularity in eating you have caused the stomach to get out of order. These little stomach troubles are signs of indigestion, which may and very often does turn into a bad case of dyspepsia. Don't allow this to go on a single day without doing something to overcome it. Take some good reliable and safe digestant like Kodol for Dyspepsia. Kodol is the best remedy known today for heart burn, belching and all troubles arising from a disordered digestion. It is pleasant to take and affords relief promptly. Sold by J. H. Swan.

Muck-Raking.

General declarations against vice and sin are indeed excellently useful, as rousing men to consider and look about them; but they do often want effect, because they only raise confused apprehension of things, and indeterminate propensions to action, which usually, before men thoroughly perceive or resolve what they should practice, to decay and vanish.—Isaac Burrows.

The postmaster of Gasconade, Mo., Daniel A. Bugh, says of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, "I am doing so well, and improving so fast in health, that I cannot say too much for your kidney and bladder pills. I feel like a new man." DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are sold by J. H. Swan.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

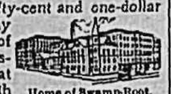

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Home of Swamp-Root.

Don t make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Wrecks in San Francisco Bay.

What a melancholy sight the bottom of San Francisco bay must present. A diver recently told of going down to the City of Chester, sunk many years ago at the mouth of the harbor by one of the large China steamers. He descended with a stout heart and a mind lured to the tragedies of the sea, but when he saw two sisters of charity sleeping quietly in their berths, and nearby a man on his knees, swaying back and forth with the motion of the tide, and a dim, mysterious light, over all the somber objects, his heart failed him and he gave the signal to be hauled above. The San Rafael lies there, too. She went down in 1901, sent to the bottom by a collision with another steamer in the fog. The relentless tide runs over her cozy cabins and beautiful stairway, dark with the passage of time.

Heat of the Sun.

It is not impossible to express the marvelous power of the sun's heat, but we can admit without shame that it is impossible to comprehend it. The heat emitted by the sun in each second is equal to that which would result from the combustion of eleven quadrillions, six hundred thousand milliards of tons of coal burning at the same time.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at J. H. Swan's drug store.

Settling New Zealand.

New Zealand, which has been created a dominion, was first discovered by Tasman, the Dutch navigator, in 1642, but it was hardly known prior to the visits of Capt. Cook, who, in 1769 and subsequent years, sailed round the islands, and surveyed the coasts. The first European settlement there dates from 1814, and the first systematic colonization from 1838. In 1840 England proclaimed her dominion over the islands. In 1852 a constitutional form of government was established.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve penetrates the pores—thoroughly cleanses—and is healing and soothing. Good for piles. Sold by J. H. Swan.

Sutherland Acres.

The biggest estate in the United Kingdom is the lordship of Sutherland, the property of the duke of Sutherland. The estate is no less than 739,200 acres.

Use of India Ink.

Good Chinese ink, better known as India ink, improves with age, and should not be used for a few years after it is made. Some persons, in rubbing it up, make circular movements that soon ruin it. It is better to rub it in straight lines backward and forward with the least possible pressure.

TRAMPS WHO DO GOOD.

Apple Tree Johnny Has Successor in Nut Planting Hobo.

The story is told of a Pennsylvania tramp who in his wanderings up and down on the earth carries his pockets full of nuts, which he plants as he goes. For three years he has followed this practice, says the Virginia Pilot, and during that time is said to have planted thousands and thousands of nuts, always seeking the out-of-the-way spots—rocky hillsides and abandoned lands at the edges of creeks and streams—so that the chances of the trees being destroyed before they grow up and mature will be minimized. This old tramp is doing something more than guaranteeing the future youth of Pennsylvania against the loss of the joy of nutting. He is setting an example in tree planting which the farmers throughout the land may well follow with profit to themselves and to the country. This nut-planting tramp recalls another member of the wandering tribes. He was known throughout the country as Apple Tree Johnny from his habit of planting apple seeds in fence corners and other nooks. Many a wayside fruit tree is said to owe its existence to Apple Tree Johnny.

Trial catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by J. H. Swan.

Providing for the Future.

A Cornish editor appeals to his subscribers in this unique way: "If you have frequent headaches, dizziness, and fainting spells, accompanied by chills, cramps, chilblains, epilepsy and jaundice, it is a sign that you are not well, but are liable to die at any minute. Pay your subscription a year in advance, and thus make yourself solid for a good obituary notice.

Appendicitis

Is due in a large measure to abuse of the bowels, by employing drastic purgatives To avoid all danger, use only Dr. King's New Life Pills, the safe, gentle cleansers and invigorators. Guaranteed to cure headache, biliousness, malaria and jaundice, at J. H. Swan's drug store. 25c.

Women on French Juries.

A movement is being made in certain quarters in France to bring about the representation of women on the juries. It long has been felt that to try women for crime before a court where the jury is composed entirely of men is an unnatural and unfair proceeding.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills made. They do not gripe. Sold by J. H. Swan.

More Cheerfulness.

There ought to be a state prison for those who destroy the hopefulness and lessen the energy of their fellows; they are human ravens eternally croaking their "Nevermore!" like that dismal fowl whose neck the poet should have wrung at an early stage of his visit. We want a prophet of cheerfulness; a dispenser of sunshine.

Game Slaughter in Germany.

Half a million sportsmen in Germany kill annually 40,000 head of red and fallow deer, 200,000 roebuck, 4,000,000 hares, 4,000,000 partridges and 400,000 wild duck, in all some 25,000,000 kilograms of wild game of a value of 25,000,000 marks, or $5,000,000, forming nearly 1 per cent. of the total meat supply of Germany.

Record Stay Under Water.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell

Bees and a Dog.

Bees have a way of swarming in all sorts of places. One day about a million of them invaded a kennel where a terrier was quietly dozing. The dog naturally resented the intrusion, and not knowing the way to manage bees is to let them alone, even if they choose to settle on one's head, he tried to bite them, and was very badly stung. Fortunately his master was close at hand, and a few buckets of water saved the dog's life.

Philosophy of Epictetus.

Epictetus: Everything has two handles; one by which it may be borne, another by which it cannot. If your brother acts unjustly, do not lay hold on the affair by the handle of his injustice, for by that it cannot be borne; but rather by the opposite, that he is your brother, that he was brought up with you, and thus you will lay hold on it as it is to be borne.

The First Golf Links.

The orthodox number of 18 holes, it seems, was fixed by pure chance. There were originally 22 holes on St. Andrew links, and so it continued till 1764, when the first four holes were converted into two. Thenceforward every full course has been laid out to correspond with Alma Mater.

Blinded by Alcohol Fumes.

A man who worked in a small room tightly closed to prevent the entrance of dust while doing some painting became perfectly blind from the effect of wood alcohol, which was contained in the staining fluid and varnish he used.

NOTED MEN TO COME

DELEGATES TO THE PEACE CONFERENCE AT WASHINGTON.

BONILLA FOR HONDURAS

Four Other Republics Also Will Be Represented by Their Leading Statesmen, Lawyers and Political Writers.

Washington. — The Central American peace conference which will convene in Washington, probably on November 11, will draw to this city as delegates the leading statesmen and professional men of Costa Rica, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua and Salvador, as well as the ministers accredited to the United States from those countries. These men will assemble here to represent the hopes entertained in the various republics that the conference may effectually end wars between themselves and revolutions within their borders.

In addition to their regularly accredited ministers to the United States, Guatemala, Honduras and Salvador have sent two delegates each, while Costa Rica and Nicaragua have sent but one.

Honduras Sends Bonilla.

Probably the most picturesque figure who will be seen at the conference is Senor Policarpo Bonilla, a former president of Honduras, and now the recognized leader of the liberal party in that country. He is said to be a lawyer of great learning and ability. He will have as his colleague Senor E. Constantino Fiallos, C. E., now secretary for foreign affairs, and an authority in political science. He began his political career as secretary of the Honduran delegation to the first pan-American conference.

The chairman of the Costa Rican delegation, Senor Luis Anderson, is the youngest member in the cabinet of President Gonzales Viquez, holding the portfolio of foreign relations and public education. He is one of the prominent lawyers of his country.

Noted Men from Guatemala.

Guatemala has sent as chairman of its delegation Dr. Antiono Batres-Jauregui, a prominent lawyer, whose services have been most important to his country. He is dean of the Guatemalan diplomatic corps and has been chief justice of the supreme court of Guatemala, member of the council of state, member of congress, chairman of the Guatemalan delegation to the third pan-American conference, and is recognized as one of the best-known writers of Latin-America. Victor Sanchez-Ocana, who accompanies Dr. Batres, is a distinguished member of the Guatemalan bar and prominent in state affairs. He was director of the national college and postmaster general of Guatemala for a long term, and has lately represented his country in a diplomatic capacity.

Other Brilliant Delegates.

The chairman of the Nicaraguan delegation will be Dr. Jose Madriz. He is an able lawyer and a public writer of renown. His political career has been varied, he having held offices of great trust, among others that of secretary for foreign affairs.

Salvador will have as chairman of its delegation Dr. Salvador Gallegos, who represented his country in Costa Rica at the time of the negotiation of the San Jose treaty in 1906. He has had a long and brilliant political career, having been for many years secretary for foreign affairs. He will be accompanied by Dr. Salvador Rodriguez, a lawyer, public writer and an accomplished orator, who represented his country in the San Jose conference and the negotiation of the treaty of 1906.

BRUTE IS ALMOST LYNCHED.

Assailant of Girl at Marietta, O., Rescued from Furious Mob.

Marietta, O.—John Sweeney, a married man, 35 years old, narrowly escaped being lynched by a mob for a dastardly assault on Anna Koon, a 14-year-old girl, Sunday afternoon.

Sweeney, who is the father of five children, was caught with the child in one of the buildings of the fair grounds, which is situated in the residence district, where a crowd quickly collected, and binding him with a rope, started for the Muskingum river, bent on throwing him in. The police arrived in time to rescue him and fought the crowd back to the police station.

Heirs Suing for Vast Lands.

Mobile, Ala. — The filing of a deed for probate Saturday was the first step in a contest for lands in Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana aggregating in value several hundred million dollars. The lands are alleged to have been the property of the late Dr. Joseph Clastang, whose heirs are the plaintiffs, held under the treaty guaranty by the United States government in the Louisiana purchase act. They are now in possession of several hundred owners.

Panama's Independence Day.

Panama.—The independence of the Republic of Panama was celebrated Sunday with enthusiasm throughout the entire country. Acting President Obaldia opened a new school of arts and trades in this city.

Army Reform for Switzerland.

Berne.—The question of army reform was submitted Sunday to a plebiscite of the Swiss people, and by a vote of 300,000 to 250,000 a law providing for improvement in the army was adopted

HELD FOR LETTER THEFTS

INFORMATION IS STOLEN FROM DISTRICT ATTORNEY SIMS.

Miss McLean, His Stenographer, and A. B. Gordee, Charged with Conspiracy.

Chicago.—Peeping through a skylight just above her desk, a federal secret service operative saw Miss Etta L. McLean, trusted stenographer, secrete in her stocking the stolen copy of a letter from United States District Attorney Sims to Attorney General Bonaparte.

Miss McLean a little later, having been arrested, produced the letter from the self-same receptacle, while in the office of her employer, Mr. Sims.

At the same time she confessed to having stolen another letter written to the attorney general several weeks ago. Both communications related to the John R. Walsh bank case. Miss McLean, in her tearful confession, implicated as her accomplice Alexander B. Gordee, with whom she has been living.

From the secret service detective who witnessed the stocking episode it was learned that Gordee had gone to Mr. Walsh's office in the Grand Central railway depot and, presumably, tried to negotiate for the sale of the first letter.

All this was brought out Friday afternoon at the hearing of Miss McLean and Gordee before United States Commissioner Mark A. Foote. They had been arrested by government officers on the previous evening. At the conclusion of the preliminary inquiry the two were sent to the county jail in default of $5,000 bonds.

The charge against the couple is conspiracy to steal and also against the woman the actual theft of the letters. For the conspiracy charge the penalty may be two years in the penitentiary and for the second charge the penalty may be five years, with the addition of a $10,000 fine in either charge.

BANK CASHIER A SUICIDE.

Official of First National, Chariton, Ia., Kills Self.

Des Moines, Ia.—Frank Crocker, cashier of the First National Savings bank, of Chariton, committed suicide early Thursday. His daughter found him dead in bed. He had taken morphine.

The bank is believed to be in good shape.

Worry over losses sustained in alleged use of Modern Woodmen funds is believed to be the cause. Crocker left a note saying:

"I can't bear this strain any longer."

Crocker was once grand treasurer of the Modern Woodmen of America, and held a national office in that order at the time of his death.

Chariton is a town of 5,000 inhabitants, 100 miles from Des Moines.

National Bank Examiner H. M. Bostwick is in charge of the bank. Crocker, before killing himself, addressed a note to Mr. Bostwick, whose visit was expected. This note explained briefly that the bank was overloaned and requested the examiner to take immediate charge. The bank has a capital stock of $50,000, a surplus of $50,000, and carried about $900,000 in deposits.

The other banks of Chariton are entirely unaffected by the closing of the First National. The Bank of Russell, a private institution of Russell, Ia., of which Crocker was president, also closed its doors temporarily.

JUDGE GROSSCUP ARRESTED.

Accepts Service and Gives Bond on Charleston Indictment.

Chicago.—E. H. Slover, sheriff of Coles county, came to Chicago Wednesday and arrested Judge Peter S. Grosscup of the United States circuit court on a charge of manslaughter, contained in indictments returned at Charleston, Ill., as a result of the fatal wreck last summer on the Charleston-Mattoon interurban line, of which Judge Grosscup is a director.

Simultaneously warrants were served on Francis S. Peabody, president of the Peabody Coal company; Marshall E. Sampsell, receiver for the Union Traction company, and Arthur W. Underwood, all directors in the interurban company and indicted on the same charge. Each gave bonds amounting to $5,000.

DYNAMITE IN TRUNK EXPLODES.

Blast in Pittsburg Depot Seriously Injures Two Men.

Pittsburg, Pa.—A panic among about 300 persons in the Union station was narrowly averted Friday when a terrific explosion occurred in the baggage room under the waiting room. A quantity of dynamite packed in a checked trunk was set off, presumably by concussion due to handling the trunk.

James Lyons, a baggage assorter, and David Chappell, a porter, were seriously but not fatally injured. Charles Flatch was arrested.

Arrests Check Law Breaking.

Kansas City, Mo.—Never before in the history of this city was the Sabbath so strictly observed by the business interests as it was Sunday. All the merchants who have heretofore defied the attempts of Criminal Judge William H. Wallace to enforce the state law forbidding unnecessary labor on Sunday obeyed the Sunday closing order. The decision to obey the law was brought about by the wholesale arrests of those persons who were indicted by the grand jury Saturday.

BYE BABY BUNTING, PAPA'S GONE A HUNTING.

CAFFEREY POSTS SANDERS

POLITICAL SITUATION IN LOUISIANA IS DRAMATIC.

Lieutenant Governor's Friends Refuse to Let Him Fight with Son of Former Senator.

New Orleans, La.—The firm reply of Lieut. Gov. J. Y. Sanders Sunday to what has been universally accepted as a challenge for a duel by Donelson Caffery, son of the late United States Senator Donelson Caffery, has created a dramatic political situation in Louisiana.

Another matter, entirely foreign to the personal combat, increases the tension. The practically rival proclamations of the lieutenant governor and of Gov. Blanchard of the coming extra session of the legislature were brought face to face by the governor's arrival here Sunday from the east.

Early Sunday morning, in close conformity to the code of honor, Mr. Sanders issued a written reply to the statements of Mr. Caffery. This statement declared that the lieutenant governor holds himself personally responsible for the utterances which caused the trouble, and adds:

"I am prepared to meet that responsibility, and Mr. Caffery knows where to find me."

Preceding this statement, two representatives of each man in the dispute had held conferences and Mr. Sanders' friends had declared firmly they would not accept a challenge in accordance with the duelling code because the lieutenant governor could not violate the statute law making duelling a crime.

Next followed the "posting" of several sections of the state by Mr. Caffery with hand bills stating that satisfaction had been refused him by Mr. Sanders. These hand bills declared that the lieutenant governor had called some of Mr. Caffery's statements untrue.

The discretion of both the lieutenant governor and Mr. Caffery is relied on to prevent a personal encounter. There are fears, however, that friends of the disputants may be drawn into a serious quarrel.

Gov. Blanchard, before leaving the east, announced that he would probably annul Mr. Sanders' proclamation which placed corporation control before the extra session of the legislature.

POLICE STATION IS BURNED.

Incendiary Fire Ruins the Headquarters in Buffalo, N. Y.

Buffalo, N. Y.—Police headquarters of this city was practically ruined Friday afternoon by fire discovered in the lavatory and which spread rapidly through the two top floors.

All of the 30 prisoners were removed in safety. This is the fourth time the building has been on fire within a few months.

Police records, the rogues' gallery and many important documents, including the original copy of Leon Czolgocz's confession of the assassination of President McKinley, were destroyed. The fire was of incendiary origin. Two companies of firemen were caught in the collapse of the roof and cupola and eight men were seriously injured. None will die.

Grand Rapids Plant Is Burned.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—Fire destroyed the plant of the Grand Rapids Clock & Mantel company Sunday. The building was filled with clocks and mantels. The loss is $70,000.

Talladega, Ala.—As a result of the murder of Tom Thompson, assistant chief of police, here Saturday night, Fred Singleton, a negro, was riddled with bullets by a posse early Sunday.

INVADED BY KINGS.

Three, with Their Families, to Be England's Guests.

London. — Three ruling monarchs of Europe, with their families, are to be the guests of England during the month of November, and extraordinary preparations for their entertainment have been made. Chief of the royal visitors is Emperor William of Germany, who, arriving November 11, will spend a week with the king and queen at Windsor castle. The empress and probably Chancellor von Buelow will accompany him. Windsor castle is being much altered and improved for the occasion.

A series of most elaborate entertainments has been arranged, including theatrical performances and a great state banquet at which the German emperor will meet many of the leaders of Great Britain's social and political worlds. The banquet, if plans do not miscarry, will surpass in splendor anything of the kind before attempted here, for in this as in all other respects, King Edward is desirous of showing the greatest honor to his nephew, in the hope of forging another link in the chain which is to draw the two countries closer together.

The days will be spent by the emperor and king and the other guests in hunting in Windsor Great Park, but the royal visitors will have to spare one day from sport to pay a visit of state to the city of London and be entertained by the lord mayor at luncheon.

FAST TRAIN IS WRECKED.

Queen & Crescent Passenger Collides with Freight—Two men Killed.

Birmingham, Ala.—Fast passenger train No. 3, on the Queen & Crescent, going at a high rate of speed, collided head-on with a freight train one mile south of Morganville, Ga., Sunday morning. Two men were killed, six seriously injured and about 20 passengers sustained more or less painful injuries.

The dead are: C. B. Spencer, engineer, of Birmingham, and William Walker, a negro brakeman.

Three coaches, mail, express and second-class passenger, were burned, all the mail and express matter being entirely consumed. The passenger train was over an hour behind time and it is said by officials it was running 70 miles an hour as the track at this point is exceptionally fine.

ONE MAN ROBS FIVE HOTELS.

Highwayman in Prescott, Ariz., Also Fatally Wounds a Man.

Prescott, Ariz.—A lone highwayman armed with a knife Saturday night entered five hotels in this city, fatally wounded one of the guests who offered resistance, and made his escape after robbing a score of people encountered during his single-handed raids.

The man first made his appearance in the Schuterman hotel, where he was discovered by Robert Lutely. The latter resisted when the robber made demands for his valuables, and was almost cut to pieces by his assailant.

John Bunyan's Will Found.

Bellefontaine, O. — While searching among old papers Mrs. M. K. Covington, of Huntsville, discovered what purports to be the last will and testament of John Bunyan, author of "Pilgrim's Progress." The document is on parchment, yellow with age, and is dated December 23, 1685.

TALK OF JUVENILE LAW.

Officers Complain That Measure Is Not Sufficiently Explicit.

Chicago.—An attack was made on the juvenile law of Illinois at the annual meeting of the directors of the Illinois Industrial School for Girls in the Chicago Woman's club.

"We have heard such a fuss made about the juvenile court and the juvenile law and then have to find there is so much that should be added to it to make it complete," said Mrs. Henry Solomon, president of the board of directors.

"The trouble is that after a child has been brought into court there must be some place where he may be taken," said Mrs. Charles Henrotin. "The law does not go far enough."

The treasurer's report showed there is a monthly deficit of almost $700. The state allows ten dollars for the care and education of each girl, and it has been found $15 is the smallest amount that can be expended.

The following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. Henry Solomon.

Vice presidents—Mrs. J. W. Buffington, Mrs. A. W. Wyant.

Corresponding secretary — Miss Grace Temple.

Treasurer—Mrs. Lawrence W. McMasters.

A plan for the sale of the property in Evanston was discussed. This property is estimated to be worth $55,000. It is mortgaged for $25,000. If purchasers can be found, the property will be sold and the school moved to the location at Park Ridge that has been secured by the board.

STILL LIVES ON PEANUTS.

Aurora Man Stays Well and Healthy on a Peanut Diet.

Aurora.—Dr. T. J. Allen, the upholder of the peanut, has overcome one of his rival single-food exponents. James Hurcell has been compelled to give up a green onion diet after six weeks.

Edgar Brobst, the beaneater, and Henry Spoden, the sauerkraut admirant, are still feeding on their favorite diets, but the goober standard bearer is confident that they will fall by the wayside before 60 days have elapsed.

A gaping waitress and customers watched Brobst eat eight plates of beans at a single sitting. He, like Allen, is on his fifteenth day. Both are feeling well.

Anti-Saloon League Campaign.

Virginia.—Great interest is being manifested in the outcome of the November election, owing to the vigorous campaign being wagered by the Cass County Anti-Saloon league, under leadership of Rev. W. A. Boyd, Rev. C. E. French and Fred Kors.

E. A. Scroggins, of Springfield, manager of the Illinois Anti-Saloon league; Mrs. Mary A. Kuhl, president of the state W. C. T. U., and other noted speakers have delivered addresses, and local ministers have made speeches throughout the rural districts.

Every effort has been made to reach the voters and place the matter before them from a temperance standpoint. Arenzville and Indian Creek, in the extreme southwest end of Cass county, have ignored the petitions.

The saloon element is confident of success.

Pioneer Settler Dies.

Litchfield.—Mrs. Martha J. Rogers, widow of the late James Rogers, died at her residence, 821 North State street, after a short illness of heart trouble at the age of 70 years.

Martha J. DeShane was born in Montgomery county, her ancestors being among the pioneer settlers of the county. At an early age, she was united in marriage to James Rogers. In the early fifties, they moved to this city.

State Architect's Bill Wins.

Springfield.—The senate passed the state architect's salary increase bill with an emergency clause, and also bills giving boards of education in cities the same power to acquire school sites as is now given in country districts, and giving towns of 1,500 inhabitants authority to construct and maintain public libraries.

Officers for Ensuing Year Elected at Washington (Ill.) Convention.

Washington.—Rev. D. F. Thomas, pastor of St. Mark's English Lutheran church at Washington, Ill., was elected president of the Evangelical Lutheran synod of Illinois. Rev. T. B. Hersch, pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church, of Evanston, was elected secretary, and C. J. Driever, of Chicago, was chosen treasurer. The synod held its fifty-seventh annual meeting at the Grace English Lutheran church, Belden avenue and Hamilton court.

AFFINITY FINDER GOES FREE.

Former Michigan Co-Ed Gets Sentence Suspended for Month.

Elgin.—Though she pleaded guilty to operating a matrimonial agency in violation of law, Miss Marian Grey, of Elgin, will be free for at least a month, and she may not have to go to jail at all.

In the United States court at Chicago Judge Bethea, after hearing the young woman's plea, told her that he would suspend sentence for a month, and that meanwhile she would be under parole. Miss Grey promised that she would never again attempt to bring together floating affinities.

Miss Grey was formerly a pupil at the University of Michigan. She told the court that she and other girls there were in the habit of answering matrimonial advertisements for fun. When she left college the idea of making money by running a matrimonial agency suggested itself and she organized what she called the "Searchlight club."

In court she protested that she really meant to do a great deal of good in the world by running a sort of central switchboard for connecting affinities and that she did not mean to violate the law.

"I may have to send you to jail," said Bethea, "but I hope not. Anyway, I will think over it for a month."

Reelect Missionary Chiefs.

Springfield.—The executive board of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, reelected the old officers for the ensuing year, as follows: President, Mrs. Cyrus D. Foss, Philadelphia; secretary, Mrs. C. W. Barnes, Delaware, O.; treasurer, Mrs. J. M. Cornell, New York.

Deserts Third Wife Is Charged.

Freeport.—Elmer Ellsworth Van Furst, alias Philip T. Parker, charged here with wife desertion, was arrested in Newport, R. I., by Sheriff Milner, of Freeport. It is said that Van Furst has three wives, the latest of whom is Miss Minta Mogle, of Freeport. He worked in Rockford, Ill., soliciting for a newspaper.

Mattoon.—William Smith, a wealthy farmer of Jasper county, committed suicide on the eve of the trial of a $500 damage suit, charging slander, brought against him by Charles Iler, a Deiterich butcher.

A TALENTED WRITER

Praises Peruna as a Catarrh Remedy

MRS. E. M. TINNEY

Mrs. E. M. Tinney, story writer, 325 E. Nueva St., San Antonio, Tex., writes:

"During 1901 I suffered form nasal catarrh, which various other remedies failed to relieve.

"Six bottles of Peruna, which I took, entirely cured me, the catarrh disappearing and never returning.

"I therefore cheerfully recommend Peruna to all similarly afflicted."

Mrs. Ellen Nagle, 414 4th street, Green Bay, Wis., writes:

"I have often heard Peruna praised and it is more widely known here than any other medicine, but I never knew what a splendid medicine it really was until a few weeks ago when I caught a bad cold which settled all over me.

"The doctor wanted to prescribe, but I told him I was going to try Peruna and sent for a bottle and tried it.

"I felt much better the next morning and within five days I had not a trace of any lameness or any cough.

"I consider it the finest cough remedy."

PERUNA TABLETS:—Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna.

AID TRUST CONCERNS

MORGAN AND OTHERS DECIDE TO HELP TWO INSTITUTIONS.

STOCKS MOVING UPWARD

Turn in Financial Crisis Seems to Be Reached — Three Small Banks in Kansas Close.

New York.—The buoyancy of the stock market Monday reflected the ultimate decision of large bankers to support the two institutions — the Trust Company of America and the Lincoln Trust company—which have been subjected to the most severe runs during the last two weeks.

The day was one of doubt and conflicting rumors, and the fact that it passed without an adverse development is evidence that the worst of the situation is probably over. At a late hour in the morning an agreement was reached, largely through the influence of Mr. Morgan, by which the trust companies will cooperate in future for their mutual protection and the directors will lend the assistance of their personal fortunes to meet immediate necessities.

The assets of the two threatened companies were carefully gone over by experts on Saturday and Sunday and both of them were found to be solvent, with a considerable surplus after paying all claims and providing for the capital stock. Under these circumstances it was thought advisable by the big men to support them cordially if they would adhere to thoroughly conservative methods and direction in future.

The achievements of these results, with the steady upward movement of the stock market till near the close, is believed to mark the turn of the crisis.

Topeka, Kan.—Bank Commissioner J. W. Royce announced Monday that three Kansas banks had been forced to close their doors, owing to the failure of the Bankers' Trust company of Kansas City, Mo., on October 28. The banks are the Coyville State bank, Coyville; the Garland State bank, Garland, and the Citizens State bank, of Mulberry, all small institutions. They had deposits with the Bankers' Trust company.

UPRISINGS COMING IN RUSSIA.

Minister of Railways Finds Serious Conditions in the Country.

St. Petersburg.—It was announced here Monday that the tour of inspection just concluded by the minister of ways and communications through southern Russia, the Caucasus, Turkistan and Central Asia had revealed complete chaos in the railroad system.

The statement is made that the railroads are practically in the hands of the revolutionists and that plans for armed uprisings are spreading everywhere. The minister himself narrowly escaped having a bomb hurled at him at Ashkabad.

STEEL TRUST IN BIG DEAL.

Secures Control of Tennessee Coal & Iron Company.

New York.—The United States Steel corporation has secured a controlling interest in the Tennessee Coal & Iron Railroad company. The deal was concluded Monday and is traceable to the conferences held at the home of J. Pierpont Morgan Saturday and Sunday.

It is understood that the price paid is a little above $85 a share. The holdings of a pool controlling some 70 per cent. of the stock of the Tennessee Coal & Iron company were transferred in the sale.

MICHIGAN MAN A SUICIDE.

Kills Himself in Los Angeles Because He Was Jilted.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Grief-stricken because the woman he loved had married another, a well-dressed, refined-looking man, giving his name as Herbert Welch, entered the apartments of James La France and Robert Curry at the Hiawatha lodging house on Broadway Monday and, after asking permission to use the telephone, sprang to a bureau where a revolver lay and, picking up the weapon, shot himself fatally in the breast. It is believed he gave an assumed name. His home was in Michigan.

Admits Taking Bribe; Fined $200.

Milwaukee.—Max Reinholdt, former supervisor from the Nineteenth ward, pleaded guilty Monday afternoon before Judge Braze to the charge against him resulting from the grand jury investigations. He was fined $200, Reinholdt was charged with accepting a bribe of $50.

Eminent Chilian Is Dead.

Santiago, Chili. — Diego Barros Arana, the most eminent historian and educator in Chili, died Monday. He was born in 1830.

BEST EVER WRITTEN

PRESCRIPTION WHICH ANYONE CAN EASILY MIX.

Said to Promptly Overcome Kidney and Bladder Afflictions—Shake Simple Ingredients Well in Bottle.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A prominent physician is the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from any druggist even in the smaller towns.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive Kidneys, overcoming Backache, Bladder weakness and Urinary trouble of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print this remarkable prescription, in October, of 1906, since when all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

Mansfield's Rebuke.

A group of theatrical men were talking in New York about the late Richard Mansfield.

"Mr. Mansfield," said one, was a delightful humorolst, a splendid raconteur in society, but at the same time he had a certain proper and becoming sense of his own dignity, and it never paid to be unduly familiar with him.

"He was, as we all know, rather bald. He resented, from barbers, or friends, any allusion to his baldness.

"Well, one night at a party, a man came up behind this great artist, staggered him with a violent slap on the back, and exclaimed in a loud, jovial, familiar voice:

"'Hello, Dick. How are you? Every time I see you, you get balder and balder.'

Mansfield drew himself up. He sneered at the other.

"'Hello,' he said. 'I don't know who you are, but every time I see you you get ruder and ruder.'"

Slight Misunderstanding.

They had been engaged just seventeen minutes by the clock, yet for the last three-seventeenth of that period there had been a proud, scornful look upon her fair face that was calculated to wither the orange blossoms.

"I can't imagine, dear," he said, sadly, "what has come over you so suddenly. I simply asked if you were romantic, when—"

"Oh, George, forgive me!" she exclaimed, with a convulsive sob, as she threw her arms about his neck, "I thought you asked me if I was rheumatic."

No Decoration Required.

It was Mr. Hobart's first experience with waffles, and he liked the taste of them. When he had been served twice, he called the waiter to him and spoke confidentially.

"I'm from Pokeville," he said, "and we're plain folks there; don't care much for style, but we know good food when we get it. I want another plateful o' those cakes, but you tell the cook she needn't stop to put that fancy printing on 'em; just send 'em along plain."—Youth's Companion.

HER "BEST FRIEND."

A Woman Thus Speaks of Postum.

We usually consider our best friends those who treat us best.

Some persons think coffee a real friend, but watch it carefully awhile and observe that it is one of the meanest of all enemies for it stabs one while professing friendship.

Coffee contains a poisonous drug—caffeine—which injures the delicate nervous system and frequently sets up disease in one or more organs of the body, if its use is persisted in.

"I had heart palpitation and nervousness for four years and the doctor told me the trouble was caused by coffee. He advised me to leave it off, but I thought I could not," writes a Wis. lady.

"On the advice of a friend I tried Postum Food Coffee and it so satisfied me that I did not care for coffee after a few days' trial of Postum.

"As weeks went by and I continued to use Postum my weight increased from 98 to 118 pounds, and the heart trouble left me. I have used it a year now, and am stronger than I ever was. I can hustle up stairs without any heart palpitation, and I am cured of nervousness.

"My children are very fond of Postum and it agrees with them. My sister liked it when she drank it at my house, but not when she made it at her own home. Now she has learned to make it right, boil it according to directions, and has become very fond of it. You may use my name if you wish, as I am not ashamed of praising my best friend—Postum."

TESTED BY TIME.

A Cure That Has Held Good for Four Years.

Mrs. Mary Crumlish of 1130 West Third Street, Wilmington, Del., says: "Some years ago I began to feel weak and miserable and one day awoke from a nap with a piercing pain in my back that made me scream. For two days I could not move and after that I had backache and dizzy spells all the time. My ankles swelled and I ran down dreadfully. I was nervous and had awful headaches. I wonder that any medicine could do what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for me. They cured me four years ago and I have been well ever since."

JUST WHAT HE WANTED.

Surely Here Were Musical Tastes Enough to Suit Anybody.

A gentleman of the most cultivated musical tastes, wishing to change his residence, advertised for rooms in a private family "fond of music." The next mail brought him the following reply:

"Dear Sir: I think we could accommodate you with rooms, and as for music one of my daughters plays the parlor organ and gittar; another one plays the accordeon and banjo; I play the cornet and fiddle; by wife plays the harmonica and my son the flute. We all sing and if you are good at tenner singing you would fit right in when we get to singing gospel hims evenings, for none of us sings tenner. Or if you plays the base vial we have one right here in the house. If you want music as well as rooms and board we could accommodate you and there would be no extra charge for it.—Lippincott's.

FAMILY'S SKIN TROUBLES.

Eczema, Heat Rash, and Scalp Affections Afflict Different Members, But Cuticura Cures Them.

"My wife had eczema for five or six years. It was on her face and would come and go. We thought we would give the Cuticura Remedies a trial. We did so and she has never had a sign of eczema for four years. I myself used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment some time ago for falling hair. I now have a very heavy head of hair. We used Cuticura Remedies for our baby, who was nearly bald when young. She has very nice hair now. She is very fleshy, and we had so much trouble with heat that we would bathe her with Cuticura Soap and then apply Cuticura Ointment, it would dry the heat up so much quicker than anything else. Mr. H. B. Springmire, 323 So. Capital Street, Iowa City, Ia., July 16, 1905, and Sept. 16, 1906."

WILD TRIBE OF POETS.

Picturesque People That Are Found in the Philippines.

Among the wild tribes to be found in the Philippines are the Bogobos, the most picturesque people in the tropics. Their origin is unknown, and all sorts of opinions have been expressed concerning them. One tale told of them is that their first ancestors were all poets and musicians, and that the dislike for the practical which is always noticeable among them has come down through the generations.

Those that have taught among the Bogobos say that given a song or a poem to learn and they will study and dream over it for hours, but give the Bogobo a problem in arithmetic and he immediately becomes ill and wants to go home.

Living at Santa Cruz, in the Davao district, is Miss Benedict, a Chicago university woman, who is collecting everything peculiar to the Bogobo.

It has been found that the beadwork done by them is quite like that of the American Indian, but there is no other likeness in the races beyond that.

She Did Not Fear Death.

An old lady on her seventy-third birthday once said, "I do not mind getting old, and I do not fear death, but I live in constant fear of paralysis."

"For some time I have been wanting to tell you of the great good your wonderful Sloan's Liniment is doing here," writes Mr. James F. Abernethy, of Rutherford College, N. C. "In fact, all your remedies are doing noble work, but your Liniment beats all. In my eight years' experience with medicine I find none to go ahead of it, having tried it in very many cases. I know of one young man, a brick-mason, who suffered from a partial, yes, almost complete, paralysis of one arm. I got him to use your Liniment, and now he can do as much work as ever, and he sings your praise every day. I get all to use it I possibly can and know there is great virtue in it. I have helped the sale of your noble remedies about here greatly, and expect to cause many more to buy them, as I know they can't be beat."

So Impolite.

"Oh!" gasped Caesar, as he felt the thrust of Brutus' dagger. "How rude of you to cut an old friend!"

KIDNEY TROUBLES

MISS KATE A. HEARN

The kidneys are essential organs for keeping the body free from impurities. If they should fail to work death would ensue in very short time.

Inflammation or irritation caused by some feminine derangement may spread to some extent to the Kidneys and affect them. The cause can be so far removed by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that the trouble will disappear.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, swelling of the limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

It may be the means of saving her life. Read what this medicine did for Kate A. Hearn, 520 West 47th Street, New York, who writes:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I owe a debt of gratitude to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it has saved my life. I suffered with Kidney trouble, irregularities and painful periods, and my blood was fast turning to water. I used your medicine for some time and it has made me strong and well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs cures Female Complaints, such as Falling and Displacements, and Organic Diseases. Dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage. It strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility and invigorates the whole system. For derangement of the Kidneys in either sex Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent.

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female illness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice. It is free.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thain on Hollowe'en night about thirty-six ghosts were entertained in honor of Mrs. Gussie Hughes, whose birthday falls on that day. The guests were ushered into the rooms where, in accordance with the usual custom of such affairs, everything was shrowded in darkness with the exception of light shed by Jack-o-lanterns. A number of appropriate games were played till the hostess, Miss Hazel Thain, took the guests to the kitchen where everyone enjoyed themselves by pulling taffy, after this was finished they were seated on the floor in the sitting room where sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee were served. Soon after twelve the party dispersed each one voting that they had spent a pleasant evening.

WOULD NOT BE HURRIED.

Rudely Aroused Oriental Made an Indignant Protest.

The American traveler who endeavors to hasten the comfortably gaited oriental against its wish soon comes to a halt. That was the experience of "A Woman Alone in the Heart of Japan." "Make the rikman hurry. I have a date and can't wait here all day," she said to the "boss rikman" at the station. He blazed like a fiery dragon. "Vell, you get so mad, you no can wait for dis, you go find 'nodder riksha," he said. She answered very meekly: "Dear friend, you do not know me. I am not the least bit mad. This is only a gentle American hustle. If you want me to be real mad, I will show you the difference." "Vell, you vas almos' mad," he insisted. "You seem jus' like mad when you say "No can wait; mus' have riksha quick; hurry up!"—Youth's Companion.

Uncovered Old Gravestone.

Covering a long abandoned well in Bosworth street, Boston, was an old gravestone which workmen unearthed while excavating for water pipe. It bears the following inscription: "William Trow, son of William and Elizabeth Trow, Dec'd Aug. 27th, 1724. Aged 1 Year and 4 Mo." The stone has a border of acanthus leaves, and at the top the traditional cherub's head flanked by wings, all neatly carved.
